Your Use of the Services

The Software is licensed to you (or the organization you represent) subject to the terms of a separate license purchased through AWS Marketplace or directly from AMGINE ("License"). The scope of features and functionality available to you is determined by the License tier you have purchased.

You may only use the Services if you are authorized to act on behalf of the organization deploying the Software, or you are an individual acting in a business or professional capacity.

We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or delete any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the availability of any Features, at any time. Your continued use of the Services following any revision of this Agreement constitutes your complete and irrevocable acceptance of such changes. If you do not agree to the amended Agreement, you must discontinue use of the Services.

License Activation and Subscription
