

AWS Marketplace – User License Agreement (ULA)

By purchasing a subscription to Casebase or accepting an offer for Casebase through AWS Marketplace, the individual or legal entity (“Customer”) agrees that the terms and conditions of Alexander Thamm GmbH (“Provider”) governing the SaaS product “Casebase”, as made available at

<https://casebase.ai/en/terms-conditions/>

(the “Agreement”), shall govern Customer’s access to and use of the Casebase software-as-a-service offering.

The Agreement shall be effective as of the date of such purchase or acceptance of an offer through AWS Marketplace.

Customer’s use of the services is further subject to the applicable product documentation and service descriptions provided by the Provider.
