You shall indemnify, hold harmless, and, at AveriSource’s option, defend AveriSource from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, costs (including attorneys’ fees) resulting from any third party claim that Your Data, or any use of Your Data in accordance with the Agreement, infringes or misappropriates any third party’s intellectual property rights or violates the privacy rights of any individual (each, a “Data Claim”). AveriSource must: (i) promptly notify You in writing of the Data Claim; (ii) allow You control over the defense of the Data Claim and any settlement negotiations provided that You may not settle any Data

13.4 Effect of Termination. Upon AveriSource's termination of this Agreement, an Order, or a SOW: (a) Your rights to all Services granted to You under the Agreement, or the applicable Order, as the case may be, immediately cease; (b) You must cease all use of all applicable Software and Services, and, if applicable, return or certify destruction of all such Software and License Keys (including copies) to AveriSource, and return, or if requested by AveriSource, destroy, any related AveriSource Confidential Information in Your possession or control and certify in writing to AveriSource that You have fully complied with these requirements; and (c) AveriSource will have no further obligation to perform the Professional Services under the SOW. Any provision will survive any termination or expiration if by its nature and context it is intended to survive, including Sections 1 (Definitions), 2.7 (Open Source Software), 3 (Restrictions; Ownership), 5 (Records and Audit), 8.2 (Software Disclaimer of Warranty), 12 (Limitation of Liability), 13 (Termination), 14 (Confidential Information) and 15 (General).

14 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

14.1 Definition. "Confidential Information" means information or materials provided by one party ("Discloser") to the other party ("Recipient") which are in tangible form and labelled "confidential" or the like, or, information which a reasonable person knew or should have known to be confidential. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following information is AveriSource's Confidential Information whether or not marked or identified as such: (a) License Keys; (b) information regarding AveriSource's pricing, product roadmaps, or strategic marketing plans; (c) the Software and Documentation; and (d) non-public materials relating to the Software and Documentation.

14.2 Protection. Recipient may use Confidential Information of Discloser solely to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under the Agreement. Recipient will disclose the Confidential Information of Discloser only to the employees or contractors of Recipient who have a need to know such Confidential Information for purposes of this Master Agreement and who are under a duty of confidentiality no less restrictive than Recipient's duty hereunder. Recipient will protect Confidential Information from unauthorized use, access, or disclosure in the same manner as Recipient protects its own confidential or proprietary information of a similar nature but with no less than reasonable care.

14.3 Exceptions. Recipient's obligations under Section 14.2 (Protection) with respect to any Confidential Information will terminate if Recipient can show by written records that such information: (a) was already known to Recipient at the time of disclosure by Discloser; (b) was disclosed to Recipient by a third party who had the right to make such disclosure without any confidentiality restrictions; (c) is, or through no fault of Recipient has become, generally available to the public; or (d) was independently developed by Recipient without access to, or use of, Discloser's Information. In addition, Recipient will be allowed to disclose Confidential Information to the extent that such disclosure is required by law or by the order of a court of similar judicial or administrative body, provided that Recipient notifies Discloser of such required disclosure promptly and in writing and cooperates with Discloser, at Discloser's request and expense, in any lawful action to contest or limit the scope of such required disclosure.

15 GENERAL.

15.1 Transfers; Assignment. You may not assign the Agreement, or any right or obligation herein or delegate any performance without AveriSource's prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. Any other attempted assignment or transfer by You will be void. AveriSource may freely assign the Agreement and use its Affiliates or other sufficiently qualified subcontractors to provide services to You, provided that AveriSource remains responsible to You for the performance of the services.

15.2 Publicity. Notwithstanding Section 14, You agree that AveriSource may (a) issue one or more press releases disclosing the relationship entered into hereby and announcing the delivery of the Services to You; and (b) refer to You in marketing materials and electronic and print media, including its website and case studies, as a customer.

15.3 Notices. Any notice delivered by AveriSource to You under this Master Agreement will be delivered via mail or email at the address listed in the Order.

15.4 Waiver; Excused Performance. Failure to enforce a provision of the Agreement will not constitute a waiver. AveriSource will not be liable for any delays or failures to perform due to causes beyond AveriSource's reasonable control (including a force majeure event). Further, AveriSource shall be excused from its obligations in the Agreement or any SOW based on Your failure to perform any of Your obligations in the Agreement or such SOW or the failure or inaccuracy of any assumption set forth in the Agreement or such SOW.

15.5 Severability. If any part of the Agreement is held unenforceable, the validity of all remaining parts will not be accepted.

15.6 Compliance with Laws; Export Control; Government Regulations. Each party shall comply with all laws applicable to the actions contemplated by the Agreement. You acknowledge that the Services, Documentation, and Deliverables are of United States origin, is provided subject to the U.S. Export Administration Regulations, may be subject to the export control laws of the applicable territory, and that diversion contrary to applicable export control laws is prohibited. You represent that (1) You are not, and are not acting on behalf of, (a) any person who is a citizen, national, or resident of, or who is controlled by the government of any country to which the United States has prohibited export transactions; or (b) any person or entity listed on the U.S. Treasury Department list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons, or the U.S. Commerce Department Denied Persons List or Entity List; and (2) You will not permit the Services, Documentation, or Deliverables to be used for, any purposes prohibited by law, including, any prohibited development, design, manufacture or production of missiles or nuclear, chemical or biological weapons. The Services, Documentation, and Deliverables are deemed to be "commercial computer software" and "commercial computer software documentation", respectively, pursuant to DFARS Section 227.7202 and FAR Section 12.212(b), as applicable. Any use, modification, reproduction, release, performing, displaying or disclosing of the Services, Documentation, or Deliverables by or for the U.S. Government shall be governed solely by the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

15.7 No Construction Against Drafter. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises with respect to any term of the Agreement, the Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof will arise, and no rule shall be enforced, favoring or disfavoring either party by virtue of authorship of any of the terms of the Agreement.

15.8 Construction. The headings of sections of this Master Agreement are for convenience and are not to be used in interpreting this Master Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated to the contrary herein by the context or use thereof (i) the words "hereof," "hereby," "herein," "hereto," and "hereunder" and words of similar import shall refer to the Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Section or paragraph of the Agreement, (ii) the words "include," "includes" or "including" are deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation," (iii) the word "or" has the same meaning as "and/or," (iv) references to a "Section" are references to a section of this Agreement, and (v) derivative forms of defined terms will have correlative meanings.

15.9 Governing Law. The Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, United States of America (excluding its conflict of law rules), and the federal laws of the United States. Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of, relating to, or in connection with the Software, Services, or the other activities contemplated hereby, including the breach, termination, or validity of the Agreement, shall be finally resolved by arbitration except that You and AVeriSource are NOT required to arbitrate any dispute (a) in which either party seeks equitable or other relief for the alleged unlawful use of copyrights, trademarks, trade names, logos, trade secrets, or patents, (b) in which either party seeks a temporary or preliminary injunction (but not a permanent injunction), (c) that can be adjudicated in a small claims court on an individual basis, or (d) that cannot be subject to mandatory arbitration as a matter of law. The arbitration will be administered by a panel of three arbiters of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules (the "AAA Rules") then in effect, except as modified by this section. The Federal Arbitration Act will govern the interpretation and enforcement of this section. The tribunal will have the power to rule on any challenge to its own jurisdiction or to the validity or enforceability of any portion of the agreement to arbitrate. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. THE PARTIES AGREE TO ARBITRATE SOLELY ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS, AND THAT THE AGREEMENT DOES NOT PERMIT CLASS ARBITRATION OR ANY CLAIMS BROUGHT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE ARBITRATION PROCEEDING. The arbitral tribunal may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. Notwithstanding the tribunal's power to rule on its own jurisdiction and the validity or enforceability of the agreement to arbitrate, the tribunal has no power to rule on the validity or enforceability of the agreement to arbitrate solely on an individual basis. The arbitrators will not have authority to make any award that could not be made by a court of competent jurisdiction. In the event the prohibition on class arbitration is deemed invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining provisions of the Agreement regarding arbitration will remain in force. To the extent permitted by law, the state and federal courts located in Dallas, Texas will be the exclusive jurisdiction for disputes arising out of or in connection with the Agreement. The U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply.

15.10 Third Party Rights; Relationship of Parties. Other than as expressly set out in this Master Agreement, the Agreement does not create any rights for any person who is not a party to it, and no person who is not a party to the Agreement may enforce any of its terms or rely on any exclusion or limitation contained in it. No agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment is created as a result of this Agreement, and neither party has authority of any kind to bind the other party in any respect whatsoever.

15.11 Order of Precedence. With respect to any inconsistency between this Master Agreement, an Order, or a SOW, the terms of this Master Agreement shall supersede and control over any conflicting or additional terms and conditions of any Order or SOW. The Agreement prevail over any of Your general terms and conditions of purchase or license regardless of whether or when You have submitted a purchase order or such terms, and AVeriSource expressly rejects all such terms and conditions offered by You. Fulfillment of Your order does not constitute acceptance of any of Your terms and conditions and does not serve to modify or amend the Agreement.

15.12 Entire Agreement. The Agreement and any amendments hereto, contain the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter of the Agreement and supersede all previous or contemporaneous communications, representations, proposals, commitments, understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties regarding the subject matter hereof. The Agreement may be amended only in writing signed by authorized representatives of both parties.
