This agreement is between Avid Technology, Inc. (together with its affiliates) and you. Please read this agreement carefully. These terms apply to the Avid software, along with the media on which you received it (if any). These terms also apply to any updates, support services, or Internet services for the software, unless other terms accompany those items. If so, those terms apply. The Avid software you have licensed may include locked software that you may choose to license and activate in the future. If you choose to do so, these terms will apply, unless other terms are presented to you when you license and activate the software. By using the software, you accept these terms. If you do not accept them, do not use the software. Instead, return it to the reseller for a refund or credit. If you cannot obtain a refund from the reseller, or if you purchased your software license directly from Avid, contact Avid for information about Avid's refund policies. Please visit www.avid.com/avidlicensing for details. If you are a consumer, you may have additional or different rights. Please read this entire agreement, including Section H (Consumer Rights Not Affected), for more information. The software may be distributed with components from other vendors that are subject to different terms. Please read this entire agreement, including Sections 8 (Third Party Software) and 9 (Third Party Information), for more information. 1. LIMITED RIGHTS TO INSTALL AND USE THE SOFTWARE. Avid grants you the following rights, subject to your purchase of may be offered on a subscription basis.

1.2. Volume license. For each volume license that you purchase, you may install one copy of the software on one hardware device and use the software on only that device for your internal business or your personal enjoyment. You may deactivate licensed devices and redeploy your purchased volume licenses to different devices within your internal computer network using the administration tools provided to you by Avid. Software subject to a volume license may be offered on a subscription basis.

1.3. Concurrent user ("floating") license. You may install one or more copies of the software on hardware devices within your internal computer network for your internal use. The software may be used concurrently by a number of individuals equal to or less than the number of concurrent user licenses you have purchased. Rights associated with this license are European Free Trade Association, in which rights associated with this license are limited to the member countries of the European Union and the European Free Trade Association. Software subject to a floating license may be offered on a subscription basis. 1.4. Commuter license. You may install one or more copies of the software on hardware devices within your internal computer network for your internal use. The software may be used concurrently by a number of individuals equal to or less than the number of concurrent user licenses you have purchased. In addition, licenses may be assigned to individual hardware devices for use outside of your internal computer network. When a license is assigned to an individual device that license no longer is available for use by concurrent users on your computer network. Rights associated with this type limited to the country in which you acquire the license, unless you acquire the license in the European Union or the member countries of the European Union and the European Free Trade Association. Software subject to a commuter license may be offered on a subscription basis. 1.5. Virtualization ("Avid Cloud VM") License. Avid may make certain software available subject to a virtualization license, including Media Composer Cloud | VM and MediaCentral Subscriptions. A virtualization license is required for any installation and use of Avid software in an environment where the host operating system is virtualized ("Virtualized Environments"). You may install one or more copies of the software in Virtualized Environments on hardware devices within your internal computer network for your internal use or within a Microsoft Azure environment maintained by you for your internal use, provided that you identify Avid as your Digital Partner of Record on your Azure account and otherwise deploy the software as instructed by Avid. The software may be used concurrently by a number of individuals equal to or less

European Union and the European Free Trade Association. Software subject to a virtualization license may be offered on a subscription basis. 1.6. Hardware key ("dongle") license. Some software requires a special hardware key to function (such as the PACE iLOK USB key). You may install such software on multiple hardware devices, but you may only use the software on one hardware device at a time, and only in connection with your properly authorized hardware key. 1.7. Free download license. Avid may make certain software available to you free of charge that does not use any of the licensing schemes described in this agreement. You may download, install, and use such software for your internal business use or your own personal enjoyment subject to any additional terms that apply to the software, but you may not redistribute the software. 1.8. Avid Storage Suite Software License. AirSpeed software, ISIS software, Avid NEXIS software and other Avid Storage Suite software ("Storage Suite Software") is licensed to you solely for your internal use in connection with genuine Avid servers and other hardware as configured and provided by Avid ("Storage Suite Hardware"). You may install Storage Suite

2. LIMITED RIGHTS TO MEDIA ELEMENTS. The software may include certain pictures, animations, sounds, music and video clips for your reuse. You may create your own works based upon these media elements, and copy, modify, distribute, display, and perform your derivative works. You may not sell, license or distribute the media elements by themselves or as part of any collection, product or service whose value is derived primarily from the media elements themselves.

3.1. Technical limitations. This software may include technological measures, whether in the software or in bundled technological measures is prohibited, except and only to the extent that applicable law expressly permits, despite this

3.2. Reverse engineering and copying. You may not reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the software, except and only to the extent that applicable law expressly permits, despite this limitation. If the software is distributed with third limitation. Any attempt to circumvent technical limitations may render the software or certain features unusable or hardware or both, that are designed to prevent or detect unlicensed use of the software. Circumvention of these 3.5. No reconfiguration. The software is licensed for installation and use only in the manner it was provided to you, as configured by an automated installation program provided with the software, or as described in Avid's documentation. You may not separate the components contained in the software or otherwise reconfigure the software to circumvent technical limitations on the use of the software or to otherwise exceed the scope of your license. 3.6. Academic Use. If the software is designated or specially-priced as an "Academic" or "Education" version, it is licensed only for educational, non-commercial use by students, faculty, and staff of an educational institution.

3.7. Evaluation software. If the software is designated or specially-priced as an "Evaluation," "Trial," "Not for resale" or

3.8. Time limits. If the software is designated or specially-priced as a time-limited "Evaluation," "Loan," "Trial," "Rental," confidential property of Avid or Avid's suppliers. You may not disclose this confidential information to anyone other than your employees or consultants who need access to the confidential information to carry out their duties and who are bound by appropriate confidentiality or nondisclosure agreements. 6. UPGRADES AND CROSSGRADES. To use software identified as an upgrade or crossgrade, you must first be licensed to use eligible software identified by Avid. Upon upgrade, this agreement governs your use of the upgraded software. If you choose to upgrade your software, you may not use the original software and the upgraded software at the same time.
