In addition, on each anniversary of the Order Effective Date, the monthly recurring Fees chargeable under the Order may be increased by up to five percent (5%). Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Agreement or any Order, Provider may promptly increase the Fees (by providing written notice thereof) to reflect any increase in Provider's out-of-pocket costs for providing the Services.

Section 4.2 Payment. Unless otherwise provided in an Order, Customer will pay all applicable Fees within thirty (30) days of the date of each issued invoice in the local currency for the jurisdiction in which Provider is located. Payment obligations are non-cancelable, and Fees paid to Provider are non-refundable unless otherwise provided in the Agreement. Provider may suspend access to the Services as set forth in Section 5.7, and the Fees will continue to accrue during any such suspension.

Section 4.4 Good Faith Disputes. If Customer, in good faith, disputes any invoice, in whole or in part, Customer will notify Provider of the dispute, including sufficient detail of the nature of the claim, the amount, the relevant invoices, and information allowing Provider to identify the affected Services, within the time required for payment of the relevant invoice. Payment of the disputed amount may be withheld until settlement of the dispute, but Customer will continue to pay all undisputed Fees in accordance with Section 4.2. Provider may monitor, either physically or electronically (including remotely), Customer's use of the Services for purposes of verifying Customer's compliance with the Agreement and maintaining and improving Provider's provision of Services, including without limitation for purposes of troubleshooting, maintenance, data management, information security, capacity planning, and service improvement. At Provider's request, Customer will promptly provide Provider with written descriptions and other information as Provider may request concerning Customer's use of any Services. Customer will, upon reasonable prior written notice from Provider (provided that in any event notice of five (5) days or longer will be considered reasonable), permit Provider to have access to the location where the Services are provided for the purpose of ascertaining the use made of the Services. Any on-site auditing or access by Provider pursuant to this Section 4.7 is subject to Customer's reasonable and standard security procedures provided in writing to Provider; provided, however, that such procedures will not frustrate the purpose of (or the ability to conduct) the audit. Provider will not conduct more than one (1) on-site audit in a calendar year unless Provider suspects, in its good faith judgment, that Customer has breached the Agreement, in which event Provider may conduct additional on-site audits. Upon Provider's request, Customer will make appropriate management employee(s) reasonably available to assist with the auditing and/or monitoring permitted herein. In addition, from time to time, upon Provider's request, Customer will promptly demonstrate to Provider's reasonable satisfaction that Customer is in full compliance with the Agreement. If Customer is in breach of the Agreement or is using the Services in a manner not permitted by the Agreement, (a) Customer will be liable to pay any applicable additional charges, such charges or Fees to be calculated from the day of the actual installation of the initial Services, and (b) without limiting any other remedy available to Provider, Provider will have the right to terminate the Agreement, the Order or any portion of the Services provided hereunder.

Unless otherwise specified in an Order, the Order automatically renews for successive one-year terms (each, a "Renewal Order Term") (the Initial Order Term and any Renewal Order Term, collectively the "Order Term"), unless (a) either Party provides the other with written notice of non-renewal at least sixty (60) days prior to any such renewal, in which event the Order will terminate on the final date of the Initial Order Term or the Renewal Order Term, as applicable, or (b) such Order or the Agreement is otherwise terminated in accordance with the Agreement or the relevant Schedule.

Section 5.3 Termination for Convenience. 11:11 SYSTEMS

Section 5.4 Termination for Cause. Any Party may terminate the Agreement if the other Party materially breaches the Agreement or Order, and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after the non-breaching Party has provided the breaching Party written notice thereof. Provider may immediately terminate the Agreement if Customer fails to pay any Fees when due to Provider and Customer does not cure such non-payment within ten (10) business days after Provider has provided Customer with notice of such failure to pay.

Section 5.5 Additional Rights to Terminate. The Order may be terminated under the Agreement:

Customer acknowledges that Provider's actual damages resulting from such termination are difficult to ascertain. The Early Termination Fee is intended to be a reasonable estimate of such damages and constitutes liquidated damages, and not penalties, in lieu of Provider's actual damages resulting from the early termination of the Agreement.

5.6.2 If Customer terminates the Agreement in accordance with Section 5.4, Provider will promptly refund Customer any prepaid and unused Fees.

5.6.3 Upon the termination or expiration the Agreement for any reason: [(a)-(c) intentionally omitted] (d) Customer will immediately uninstall and discontinue all use of any software subject to a software license that is provided to Customer pursuant to such Order; and (e) Customer will pay Provider: (i) all Fees for Services rendered prior to termination, (ii) other reasonable and necessary amounts directly associated with the termination of the Services, including but not limited to Provider's out-of-pocket costs associated with the cancellation or termination of any contracts with Third Parties, and (iii) any other amounts required to be paid pursuant to such Order in connection with termination of such Order.

Section 5.7 Suspension of Services for Non-Payment. Provider may temporarily suspend providing Services upon five (5) days prior notice to Customer if Customer fails to pay any Fees when due (unless such amount is actively subject to the dispute process under Section 4.4 of these Terms), provided that, upon paying the amounts then due and payable under the Agreement, including any such amounts applicable to the suspension period, Provider will promptly resume providing Services under such Order.

Section 5.8 Enjoinment. If the Services are enjoined or are likely to be enjoined, then Provider may, at its sole option and expense, either: (a) obtain the right for Customer to continue using Services;

The following provisions of these Terms will survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement: Section 3.8.3 (to remove any Equipment Customer does not return upon expiration or termination), Section 4.1 (with respect to any amount accruing prior to or as a result of expiration or termination), Section 4.2, Section 4.3, Section 4.4, Section 4.5, Section 5.6, Section 5.9, Section 6.3, Section 6.4, ARTICLE 7, Section 8.2, Section 8.3, ARTICLE 9, ARTICLE 11, ARTICLE 12, and ARTICLE 13.

Section 13.5 Amendments. No amendment, modification, waiver, or release of the provisions of the Agreement is binding on any Party unless a writing of like import exists that (a) specifically identifies the amended, modified, waived, or released obligation, (b) describes the nature of the amendment, modification, waiver, or release, and (c) is signed by each Party that is a party to the Order.

In the Agreement: (a) the headings are for convenience only and will not affect the meaning or interpretation of the Agreement; (b) the words "herein," "hereunder," "hereby," and similar words refer to the Agreement as a whole (and not to the particular sentence, paragraph, or Section where they appear); (c) terms used in the plural include the singular, and vice versa unless the context clearly requires otherwise; (d) "or" is used in the sense of "and/or"; (e) "any" is used in the sense of "any or all"; and (f) the words "include," "includes," or "including" are to be construed as if they are immediately followed by the words "without limitation." If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, then the Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties, and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the terms hereof or thereof.

13.10.2 Severability of Provisions. Each provision contained in the Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct provision severable from all other provisions. If any provision (or any part thereof) is unenforceable under or prohibited by any present or future law, then such provision (or part thereof) will be amended, and is hereby amended, so as to be in compliance with such law while preserving to the maximum extent possible the intent of the original provision. The term "key employee" means any employee engaged in providing Services under the Agreement. This Section will not be construed to prevent the hiring of an employee who responds to a general advertisement of employment opportunities.

13.10.5 Electronic Signature. The execution of the Order may be evidenced by way of a facsimile, portable document format (.pdf), transmission or electronic production or reproduction, photostatic or otherwise, and such portable document format (.pdf), or electronic production or reproduction signature is deemed to constitute the original signature of such Party or person.
