Customer hereby grants to IronNet a limited, non-exclusive license, without right to sublicense, to use the trademarks and logos of Customer for this limited marketing purpose. If Customer participates in any partner or marketing program which allows for greater use of marks and greater need for Customer participation in public statements or case studies, then the terms of such program shall supersede these restrictions. IronNet will abide by any standard trademark or logo usage requirements provided in writing by Customer. Notwithstanding the preceding, either party may make disclosures as required by law as reasonably advised by legal counsel without the consent of the other party and in such event, the disclosing party will provide at least five (5) business days prior written notice of such disclosure. If Customer acquired an IronNet Offering or Service directly from IronNet, then if any conflict arises between an Ordering Document and this Agreement the terms of the Ordering Document shall control.

12.3 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of the provision shall be amended to achieve as closely as possible the economic effect of the original term and all other provisions shall continue in full force and effect.
