

By subscribing to the services of Qdrant Solutions GmbH ("Qdrant") through AWS Marketplace, you are placing an "Order" under Qdrant's Master Subscription Agreement (the "MSA"), available at <https://cloud.qdrant.io/service-agreement>. For your reference, the MSA outlines the terms governing your purchase and use of Qdrant's services.

If you are subscribing and entering into an Order on behalf of an entity or organization: (1) all references to "Customer" in the MSA shall refer to that entity or organization, and (2) you confirm that you have the full legal authority to enter into the MSA on its behalf, including the authority to make purchasing decisions and enter into binding agreements.

By proceeding with this subscription, you acknowledge and agree to the terms of the MSA.
